Dedication

DEDICATION

We, the Senior Class of 1948, wish to dedicate this annual to Lloyd Biberstine, our faculty advisor, for the kind assistance during the past year.

Administration

Mr. Lee

Mr. Rittenhouse

Mr. Day

Wayne Lee received his position as county superintendent in 1941.

He received his B. S. Degree at Marion College and his M. S. Degree at Indiana University.

At all times, Mr. Lee, has been very helpful and willing in assisting us with our various problems.

Olin Rittenhouse took office as township trustee in January 1947.

He has directed our school maintainence very well, for the past one and one-half years.

Charles Day came to our school in 1946 as principal.

He received his B. S. Degree at Manchester College and his M. S. Degree at Indiana University.

His helpful suggestions in maintaining our school, has been very much appreciated.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

Class Motto: "Not Finished, Just Begun."
Class Color: "Gray and Rose"
Class Flower: "Rose Carnation"

In September, 1936, twenty-one happy-go-lucky boys and girls entered their first year of their school days. Miss Bernice Raber met us at the door. She was very patient with all the questions we had to ask. Our other grade teachers were as follows: Second and third, Mrs. Estner Roe, fourth, Mrs. Bertha Fisher; fifth, Mrs. Mildred Gavin, sixth, Max Boltin and Miss Mae McCarty. When we entered the seventh grade there were only fourteen members, of these there were seven of the original class. Our sponsor was Miss Alice Kingdon and our President was Alice Clarke. In the eighth grade our sponsor was Mr. Harry Coolman, with the following officers: President, Ellen Huffman; Vice-President, Donald Goodspeed; Secretary and Treasurer, Alice Clarke.

At the beginning of the Freshman year, the Seniors decided to initiate us. After our fatal night, we elected class officers as follows: President, Junior Booher; Vice-President, Harold Surbaugh; Secretary and Treasurer, Ruthanna Love. Our sponsor was Mr. Eldon Aldred.

In our Sophomore year, Mr. Kenneth Scott was our class sponsor. Brooks Humerickhouse was our President; Richard Lash, Vice-President; Ruthanna Love, Secretary and Treasurer. We chose our class rings from the Terry-berry Ring Company.

In the Junior year, the fourteen members of our class and Miss Zimmerman chose our class play. The name of the play was "Good-night, Ladies." In this year we also put out the last two issues of the Liberty Bell. Our officers for that year were: President, Richard Lash; Vice-President, Wayne Rennaker; Secretary and Treasurer, Ruthanna Love. Our sponsor was Mr. Kenneth Scott.

Mr. Charles Day was our sponsor for our senior year with the following officers: President, Ellen Huffman; Vice-President, Wayne Rennaker; Secretary and Treasurer, Ruthanna Love. Miss Zimmerman sponsored our play, entitled "Don't Keep Him Waiting." The seniors with the help of Mr. Lloyd Biberstine sponsored the "Memories." We are taking a trip to Washington and other eastern states.

CLASS WILL

We, the Seniors of LCHS, being of sound mind, have decided to leave our outstanding faults and virtues to other members of the student body. Thus we hope to keep alive our memory in the hearts of the students and faculty.

To the School:

We leave the Memories which we hope will be the pride of the school.

To the Faculty:

We leave to you, dear teachers, our abilities we failed to use and our thanks for allowing us to put off tests as long as possible.

To the Juniors:

We leave to each a portion of our ability to keep out of mischief.

As individuals, we, the members of the senior class wish to leave some of our personal traits and abilities:

I, Louella Hunnicutt, will my ability to write love letters to Gyneth Liechty, providing she doesn't let her mother catch her.

I, Ruthanna Love, will my ability to keep a boy friend to Phyllis Moore, providing she chooses the right one.

I, Helen Minniear, will my backwardness to Virginia Stroud.

I, Georgia Reaser, will my Pocketbook to anyone who wants to carry a suitcase.

I, Ellen Huffman, will my ability to make mistakes to Miss Zimmerman, who is "tired of being right."

I, Anna Louise Grover, will my Junior Proprietorship of the Liberty Center Drug Store, to Betty June Lieurance providing she doesn't flirt with the coke man.

I, Mary Elizabeth Burkhart, will my freckles to Joanne Huffman, providing she gives them back after graduation.

I, Junior Booher, will my ability to milk cows to Carl Noland.

I, Harold Surbaugh, will my artistic drawing to Roger Zoll.

I, Wayne Rennaker, bequeath my big feet to Roger Lash.

I, Brooks Humerickhouse,will my ability to get along with the teachers to anyone that can get by with what I have.

I, Dick Lash, will my enjoyment to get U. S. history to anyone who can understand it.

I, George Ellett, will my ability to get and keep girls to Darwin Markley.

I, Tom Huffman, will my public speaking ability to Carmie Ray Collins.

CLASS PROPHECY

As I was passing through Liberty Center the other day I decided to stop and see some friends of mine. I asked a friend about the graduates of ten years ago, the class of '48, and this is what I learned:

Louella Hunnicutt is at present in Reno getting her fourth or fifth divorce, I have forgotten which.

Anna Louise Grover is now part owner of the Liberty Center Drug Store.

Ruthanna Love's address is Warren Route 2, and her title is simply Mrs. Verlis Payne, housewife.

Helen Minniear will be found at Borden's behind a door marked "President."

Ellen Huffman is now a new member of the faculty at Liberty Center. She is teaching a commercial course and French.

Mary Elizabeth Burkhart is running a bachelor's home in Warren where Junior Harvey is now located.

Georgia R. Reaser is now in a vocal university in gay Paree, singing to her heart's content.

If you are wondering why the Palace theater in Fort Wayne is in such a disorderly state, it is because George Ellett is head manager.

Friends of Dick Lash will have to get an appointment to see the great man now that he is owner of a chain of service stations.

Brooks Humerickhouse always said he would be digging ditches. He is now operating a dredge for the "Scrumptutous Ditch Digging Co. Inc."

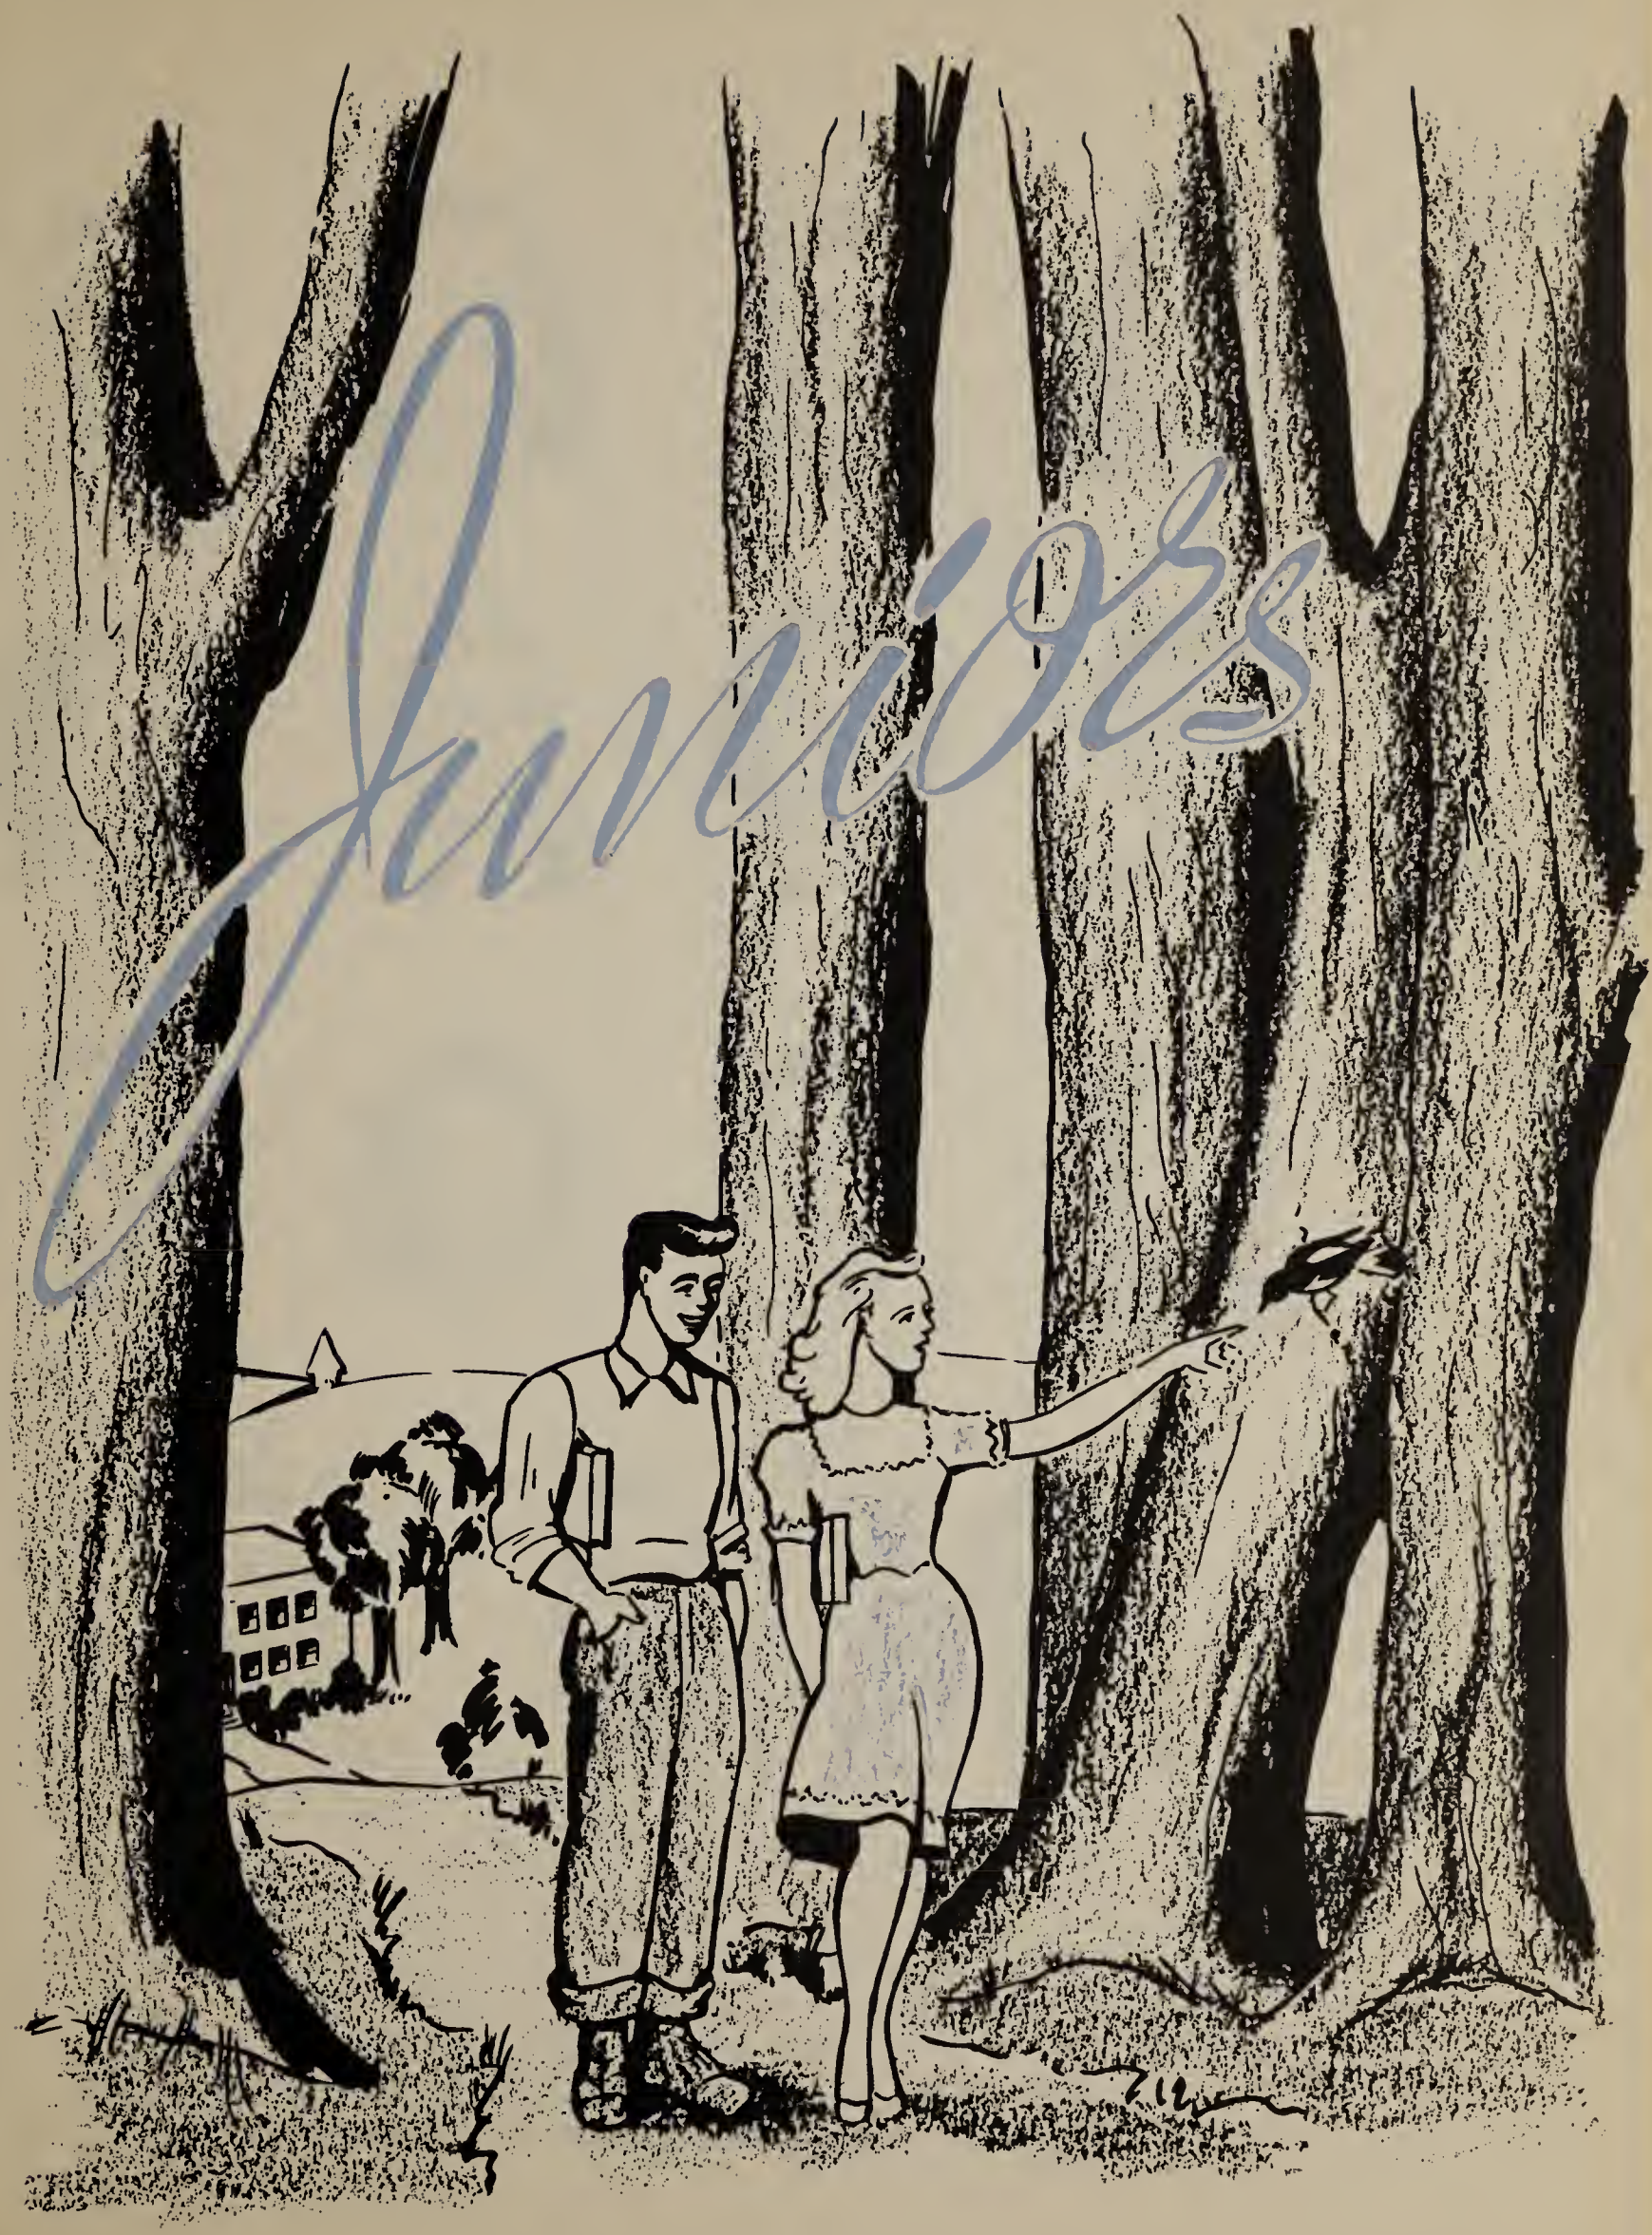
The fellow with the following of cows, pigs, chickens, etc., is Junior Booher.

Tom Huffman will be found in the Woodlawn Cemetary, lot No. 13, with the epitaph:

Speedlimit forty,
Speedometer eighty-five,
Car had wreck,
Not a man left alive.

Dick's aptness for finding talent is recognized by the fact that Wayne Rennaker is working for him as a mechanic.

Harold Surbaugh's hair is his greatest asset, since he has become a Kreml Salesman.



JUNIOR CLASS

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

Class Motto: "No Victory Without Labor."
Class Color: "Navy Blue and Rose"
Class Flower: "American Beauty Rose"

The Junior Class of Liberty Center came together for the first time in 1936. Twenty little pupils came to school, some dragging their mothers, and some, their mothers dragging them, to start the first of their twelve years. Our teacher was Miss Bernice Raber.

Other teachers we had were: Mrs. Esther Roe (second), Miss Mary Mendenhall (third), Miss Mildred Gavin (fourth), Max Boltin (first half of the fifth grade), and Miss Mae McCarty (second half of the fifth and all of the sixth grade).

The first few days of the seventh grade was very new and different, and we had a few mis-haps in our classes; but we finally got the hang of it. John Noe was our President in the seventh grade and Kent Craig was our President in the eighth grade. Mr. Harry Coolman was our teacher for the majority of our subjects in the seventh and eighth grades.

In August of 1945, with some gained and some lost, we were initiated into the upper four grades with twenty-two in our class. Roger Zoll was our class President for that year.

In our Sophomore year we purchased our class rings from the Terryberry Company of Grand Rapids, Michigan. Darwin Markley was our President for that year.

We have nineteen in our class this year with Darwin Markley for our President; Bob Poulson, Vice-President; and Joanne Huffman, Secretary and Treasurer. Miss Betty Kunkle is our Sponsor. The Liberty Bell was written by members of our class this year, under the supervision of Miss Zimmerman. We feel that our paper was very successful and we hope you have enjoyed reading it. We presented the play entitled "That Crazy Smith Family."

CLASS HISTORY

In the fall of "38", fourteen nappy little boys and girls made their first trip to school. Waiting there to greet us was our teacher, Bernice Raber. In our six lower years we had the following teachers, Bernice Raber, Mary Mendenhall, Mildred Frantz, and Mae McCarty. Our seventh grade sponsor was Mr. Aldred and the officers were: President, Irene Penrod; Vice-President, Rex Gregg; Secretary and Treasurer, Betty Lieurance. In the eighth grade, Mr. Aldred was again our sponsor. Our President was Marian Duft; Vice-President, Irene Penrod; Secretary, Rex Gregg; and Treasurer, Marlin Masterson. Mr. Biberstine was our Freshman sponsor, with the following officers: President, Marian Duft; Vice-President, Kenneth Hunnicutt; Treasurer, Joyce Ware; and Secretary, Yvonne Eckhart. Mr. Biberstine was also our Sophomore sponsor. This year our officers were: President, Max Stanton; Vice-President, Irene Penrod; Secretary, Joyce Ware; and Treasurer, Rex Gregg. We have been very successful in making money for our class by picking pickles and having a bake sale.

CLASS HISTORY

Our class started with 18 in the first grade. That year Miss Mary Mendenhall was our teacher. In the fourth grade Miss Mildred Gavin was our teacher until she left to be married and Mrs. Naomi Benson taught our class. The class separated in the fifth grade. Part of us went into Mae McCarty's room and others stayed in Mrs. John Kirtley's room. Mr. Neil Roe taught our class in the sixth grade. We had our first party this year. In the seventh grade we elected officers as follows: President, Harold Arnold; Vice-President, Donna Maggart; Secretary and Treasurer, Hazel Poulson. Our first party was a weiner roast at the school house. The second was a chicken supper and then a show. Our sponsor was Mr. Harry Coolman. When we were in the eighth grade, our class officers were: President, Donna Maggart; Vice-President, Kenneth Slusher; Secretary and Treasurer, Wanda Rennaker. Our parties that year were a hamburger fry at school and a carry in supper, then attending a show. Our sponsor was Miss Betty Kunkle. We now have ten members. Our officers are: President, Marjorie Hunnicutt; Vice-President, Hazel Poulson; Secretary and Treasurer, Martha Wentz; sponsor, Kenneth Scott. Our first party this year was a weiner roast at Hazel Poulson's. Our class colors are red and white and our class flower is the red rose.

BASKETBALL TEAM

The Liberty Center basketball team had a fairly successful season this year. During the first of the season, sickness and injuries were a handicap. The team hit their peak in the Warren Tourney which they won defeating Roanoke and West Union.

Included in the first team were five seniors and five juniors.

Booher playing his third year of ball was a consistent point getter.

Rennaker, one of our tallest players, hit his peak late in the season.

Captain Lash, a two year man, was a good rebound man.

Humerickhouse, a good defensive man, has had two years of varsity ball.

Huffman, playing his second year has been a consistent floor man.

Craig, a junior, playing his second year, has played a good offensive game.

Zoll, a first year man on the varsity, has been consistent on rebounds.

Fenrod, Burns, and Noe came up from the second team late in the season to do some relief work on the first team.

CHEER LEADERS

Joanne Huffman (left) and Betty Liourance (right) were elected Yell Leaders by the students of L.C.H.S. The girls have done a swell job directing our cheering section.

DON'T KEEP HIM WAITING

Betty is the mainstay of the irresponsible Ramble family, and she has a tug-of-war making both ends meet. When she loses her job, it doesn't seem to make much difference. They all go their merry ways, still buying things--and charging them to Betty. Dave, who has been engaged to Betty for several years, now urges her to marry him and leave for South America, where he has a new job. Let the family look out for themselves for a change! But Betty refuses to shirk her responsibility, and Dave finds comfort in a cute Southern charmer. That makes Betty begin to see red! She goes on a wild shopping spree--and charges everything to the other members of the family for a change. She gives Dave a taste of his own medicine and flirts wickedly with bald-headed Mr. Atkins. It works! The family, at first stunned by this turnabout treatment, wake up to their shortcomings. We don't have to tell you that they pitch in to make things right for Betty, and that she knocks the Southern charmer out of the running, and sails jovously away with Dave on her honeymoon.

THAT CRAZY SMITH FAMILY

Tony Smith is a sensational High School football player, sought after by several colleges. But Tony plans to enter State College with Barbara, his "steady." A rival college sends Julie, its most potent glamour girl, to "get" Tony to enroll with them. This is Tony's first experience with glamour, and he takes the bait, " hook, line, and sinker." Sweet unaffected Barbara is neglected, until she decides to try glamour herself. She accepts an invitation from Stewart Brandon to go for a ride in his plane. The plane gets caught in a storm and makes a forced landing. Barbara reappears in clothes borrowed from a glamorous girl friend. Tony realizes now how stunning she is, but he believes she is in love with Stewart. Julie is forgotten, and Tony wants nothing more than to be in Barbara's good graces.
